Introducing Hawai'i
Public Radio's new logo:

This new visual is a re-voicing of HPR's enduring qualities. After 35 years, HPR has established roots in its community. Enfolded in the public's trust and support, we reach out to bridge that which divides and stand ready to embrace the future. Our simple sound waves bring the world to Hawai'i, and Hawai'i's stories to the world. We are HPR.

We are pleased to share with you here the wealth of programs you will find on HPR's two stations.

- HPR-1 - timely news and information, as well as contemporary music and entertainment
- HPR-2 - your home for classical music and other timeless explorations

In February 2017, we celebrate HPR's 35th anniversary with a realignment of our programs along these two distinct formats. This is the fulfillment of a promise made at the stations founding, and realized over the years through the generous contributions of many thousands of member donors and hundreds of business underwriters. Their support made possible the expansion of HPR's network to include service across the Hawaiian islands - sometimes to populations in remote locations where our broadcast signal is the only one received.

With the more recent digital developments in our medium, Hawai'i Public Radio and the unique stories we are privileged to tell now also belong to the world. We encourage you to find us streaming on your computer or via our free mobile app, wherever you may be tuning in.

Hawai'i Public Radio's future depends, as it always has, on the strength of our community support. We hope the newly aligned programming leads to many hours of enlightening and pleasurable listening - and the realization that it's individuals like you who help keep these local, national, and international programs coming to you.

- If you are not yet a member, help sustain the programs you value by signing up for monthly contributions from the account of your choice.
- Current members, your additional gifts or increases in sustaining donation amounts help us to continue growing and improving this service.
- If your company is interested in becoming a program sponsor, please give our Underwriting department a call.

Thank you for lending us your ears. We promise to return them with a bigger brain and a softer heart attached!

Aloha,

José A. Fajardo
President and General Manager

Krista Tippett and her guests reach beyond the headlines to probe faith and meaning, ethics and new ways of being in the 21st century.

Metropolitan Opera.

HPR is proud to be the community's only source for opera broadcasts including the live Metropolitan Opera Radio matinees, and the NPR World of Opera. For additional information, visit HPR's website.

PERFORMANCE TODAY

MON - FRI NOON - 2PM

Live concert recordings that can't be heard anywhere else, as well as in-studio performances and interviews. Favorite segments include the weekly Piano Puzzler and the PT Young Artist in Residence program. Hosted by Fred Child.

A PRAIRIE HOME COMPANION

SUN 7 - 9PM

Based on the live variety shows of the early years of the Grand Ole Opry, A Prairie Home Companion has had an infusion of new blood. Before he retired, show creator and host Garrison Keillor hand picked singer, songwriter, and mandolin virtuoso Chris Thile as his heir. Thile has broadened the show's musical line-up and offers as his signature piece the "Song of the Week," with his original lyrics and instrumentation on a topic currently in the news. (HPR has presented nationally broadcast live tapings of APHC in Honolulu four times.)

THE SCORE

SAT 9 - 10AM

A celebration of music in film. Timely box office tie-ins, enticing weekly themes, talk, and music are all woven together by host Edmund Stone, a classically trained Shakespearean actor.

SINATRA: THE MAN AND THE MUSIC

SUN 9 - 10PM

The life and times of one of the 20th century's greatest entertainers - Frank Sinatra - as told through archival recordings, radio and television appearances, live performances, and excerpts from interviews with Sinatra himself, as well as commentary from the arrangers, musicians, songwriters, and others who worked with him during his long career. A unique production of HPR, hosted by Guy Steele.

SINGING AND OTHER SINS

SAT 5 - 6PM

Originally called Great Songs, this is one of HPR's longest running, locally produced programs (originating in 1988), and the only remaining radio broadcast worldwide dedicated to the classical art song. Local host Gary Hickling offers art songs in the context of other music of the composer or period, thus providing context. After a non-art song interlude, he repeats the song (often by a different voice type or interpretation) to give the listener a better chance to enjoy them.

STAR DATE

MON - FRI 7:57PM DURING EVENING
CONCERT

The two-minute program from the McDonald Observatory in Austin, Texas, helps listeners learn more about astronomy and space exploration. Find out what to look for in the night sky, what goes on inside stars and distant galaxies, and hear about new space missions.

STARGAZER

MON 5PM DURING CLASSICAL PACIFIC

Christopher Phillips, a science educator formerly of 'Imiloa Astronomy Center of Hawai'i, speaks with HPR's Dave Lawrence and gives us a preview of the week's night sky in Hawai'i.

You'll hear tuneful and lively music by such masters as Vivaldi and Bach, and music by their talented contemporaries and predecessors in great performances by yesterday's and today's best performers. Perfect for a Sunday state of mind. Suzanne Bona, host and executive producer.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

Choral and organ music of many faiths in recordings from around the world. The program follows the season of the liturgical year and celebrates many cultures, nationalities, and over a thousand years of sacred music. Hosted by Peter DuBois.

THE WRITER'S ALMANAC

MON - FRI 9AM DURING MORNING CAFÉ; 7:06PM DURING EVENING CONCERT

HOST:
Garrison Keillor

CREDIT:
A Prairie Home
Companion

Brief biographies and notable events associated with writers and particular days. Hosted by Garrison Keillor, former host of A Prairie Home Companion.

Your programming and music has provided an invaluable respite of both serenity and intellectual engagement. That chicken-skin bird-chirping piece [Gene Schiller] plays has become ingrained in my now 6-year-old's mind since infancy."

— Amy Halas, Kahului

TOP RANKING FOR HPR'S FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

In 2016, Hawai'i Public Radio was awarded its fifth consecutive 4-star rating from Charity Navigator. Only 6% of the charities evaluated by this leading independent charity evaluator have received a similar number of consecutive designations. The rating demonstrates that HPR executes its mission in a financially efficient way and is committed to accountability and transparency. See more at bit.ly/hpr4stars.

PROGRAM UNDERWRITERS, FOUNDATIONS

HPR is truly locally managed and locally funded, a critical function of our independence. Aside from the individuals who contribute to HPR's operating funds, the single outstanding group of HPR supporters are the program underwriters and foundations who support the programming not only with financial generosity but choose to affiliate their names with the public radio community. Together, the members, underwriters and foundations make up 94% of HPR's support, and we are very grateful to every one of them.
