After an eight-year break from recording, the Hōkū Award-winning trio Maunalua (MOW-nuh-loo-uh) returns with its fourth album. He Inoa (Hay EE-noa) continues a tradition of vocal harmonies, slack key guitar and ‘ukulele music.

$365 Dollar-A-Day Pledge Level

($30 per month Sustaining Membership)

BASIC BENEFITS and CHOOSE ONE:

$30/Month ($365) Pledge – Evening Jazz CD Combo

(F15CD400) 6-Disc (3-Disc set, 3 CDs) Jazz Music Combo

1. Erroll Garner – *The Complete Concert By The Sea

The 3-CD box set contains the bestselling complete live concert recording including 11 previously unreleased tracks, the original edited Columbia release from 1956 (digitally restored and remastered at The Magic Shop, NYC using the Plangent Process) and bonus material including announcer Jimmy Lyons and interviews with the Erroll Garner trio: Denzil DaCosta Best, Eddie Calhoun, and Garner himself, recorded directly after the concert.

2. The Dave Brubeck Quartet – *Time Out

Boasting the first jazz instrumental to sell a million copies, the Paul Desmond-penned "Take Five," Time Out captures the celebrated jazz quartet at the height of both its popularity and its powers. Recorded in 1959, the album combines superb performances by pianist Brubeck, alto saxophonist Desmond, drummer Joe Morello and bassist Gene Wright.

3. Ella Fitzgerald – *Ella Fitzgerald Sings the Cole Porter Songbook

A Two-CD Set including "I Get A Kick Out of You", "In the Still of the Night", and "Love For Sale."

$30/Month ($365) Pledge – Latin Beats CD

(F15CD302) 2-Disc Set Latin Music

Live in Cuba: The Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis.

Recorded over three nights at Havana's Mella Theater in October 2010, this double-disc release explores the indelible connections between American Jazz and Afro-Cuban music. The recording celebrates this profound bridge of influence with the help of nine-time Grammy Award-winner Wynton Marsalis and the renowned Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra. The historic concert featured Ellington standards, Afro-Cuban numbers, and modern compositions from the band members.

$365 Dollar-A-Day Pledge Level
($30 per month Sustaining Membership)
BASIC BENEFITS and CHOOSE ONE:

$30/Month ($365) Pledge – Blues CD Combo

(F15CD506) 5-CD Combo: Blues Plate Special – The Millennium Collection

1. Willie Dixon: *I am the Blues

Many of prolific songwriter Willie Dixon's original compositions were made famous by other artists; I am the Blues gives us these tracks, in Dixon's own voice.

2. Muddy Waters: *Fathers and Sons (Remastered)

Fathers and Sons is the collaboration of legends Muddy waters and Otis Spann, with Buddy Miles, Michael Bloomfield, Paul Butterfield, Donald "Duck" Dunn and Sam Lay. This reissue adds three unreleased tracks and a rare B-side.

3. Lightnin' Hopkins: *Hello Central: The Best of Lightnin' Hopkins

There's truth in Texas blues, and this collection gives us smooth, old-fashioned sentiment from a lonesome soul. The 20 tracks were recorded over 1950 and '51, one of the most generative periods for Hopkins, who either plays solo or with bassist Donald Cooks.

4. Muddy Waters, Johnny Winter & James Cotton: *Breakin' it Up, Breakin' it Down

Recorded live, and almost lost, these 11 tracks were released 30 years after their performance on the 1977 Hard Again tour.

5. Howlin' Wolf: *Howlin' Wolf/Moanin' in the Moonlight

Blazing guitar, subterranean growl, and thunderous electricity – this 2 CD set combines Howlin' Wolf's first self-titled album as well as his second release, Moanin' in the Moonlight.

$365 Dollar-A-Day Pledge Level

(F15CD301) 2-Disc Brazilian Music Combo

1. Eliane Elias: *Made in Brazil

Made in Brazil marks the first disc recorded in Elias' native Brazil since moving to New York City in 1981. The multi-Grammy-nominated singer and pianist gives us a romantic mix of Portuguese and English; from classic Bossa Nova to original jazz compositions, seven of the 12 tracks feature orchestral arrangements by Rob Mathes, recorded in London's legendary Abbey Road Studios.

2. Hamilton de Holanda: *World of Pixinguinha

Brazilian bandolim virtuoso Hamilton de Holanda explores the vast work of flutist, saxophonist, and composing great Alfredo Viana, better known as Pixinguinha. The album was recorded with the help of solo stars Cuban Pianist Chucho Valdés, French accordionist Richard Galliano, and American trumpeter Wynton Marsalis.

1. Leon Bridges – *Coming Home

One of Neo-Soul's breakthrough artists of the year... Leon Bridges is being considered the re-embodiment of Sam Cooke. In his long awaited debut CD, Bridges traverses his roots into Soul, Gospel, and Blues. His style is firmly planted in its southern roots while looking forward into modern swing.

2. Fabio Do Nascimento: *Danca Dos Tempos

Danca Dos Tempos is the debut album from Los Angeles based Fabiano Do Nascimento. Nascimento delivers whimsical guitar driven Bossa Nova that brings the genre bravely into the future while paying tribute to its Brazilian roots. Beautiful, delicate guitar work is interwoven with modern production and textures to produce an album that goes from a whisper to a party.

3. Quantic presents the *Western Transient– A New Constellation

Will Holland, better known as Quantic, explores the world of improvisational jazz and traditional recording techniques. The album is a tribute to the style of Los Angeles, blended with his background of Latin, African and Caribbean musical styles. Recorded in only a few takes on seven reels of magnetic reel-to-reel tape, the album captures the essence and tradition of jazz, while shedding a bright light on its future.
